

POULTRY VET POSITION

St David's Poultry Team Ireland is seeking an enthusiastic veterinary surgeon to join our expanding team, based at our Monaghan practice.

We are a commercial poultry practice dedicated to providing high level clinical care across Ireland, with bases in Monaghan, Limerick, Dungannon and Ballymena. Our work focuses on preventative healthcare, proactive flock health planning and disease investigation.

Previous poultry experience is welcome but not essential – comprehensive training and ongoing support will be provided, making this an excellent opportunity for both experienced vets and those new to poultry practice.

We offer a highly competitive salary (dependent on experience) alongside an attractive benefits package including:

- Company vehicle
- Professional fees covered
- Pension and death-in-service cover
- 25 days annual leave plus bank holidays
- Generous CPD allowance and funded career development

VCI/RCVS eligibility is essential.
